

Dear Chamki,

I knew that you'll open this up and you'll have to open this many times and I'm sorry that you've to miss me as I'm not there around. But Trust me , If you are missing me then no doubt I'm missing you too. Seriously Sweetheart, I miss you every minute , hour and everyday. I miss you every time, we're not together. Honestly, I don't like to be away from you. I want to be always with you. But we've to be apart.

I don't want you to miss me. We need to be strong , right ? Even, I can't wait to see you but I'll see you some day. Wait for me !

We're not together but each day I think about you and you don't have any idea that how much i miss you. I loved you truly. Don't worry and believe me , Chamki ! I'm forever yours. I still love you with my full heart.

I know you don't have any picture with me, even last day of college I denied for picture with you. Babe, I wanted to share a whole wedding album with you. Don't worry, I'm sending a picture of mine in envelope as I know u don't have any picture of me. I rarely (almost never) uploaded photos on fb nd insta as i have picture collection on google cloud and don't care much about social attention.

Take a deep breath and smile now😊 ; chamki. I'm missing you too and send me a text right now.

Lots of Love
